DECLARATION UNDER 37 C.F.R. 1.131

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

I, Jonathan H. Bari declare as follows:

1. I am a named co-inventor of the above-referenced U.S. Patent Application (Application 09/759,225).
2. On or about April 14, 1999 I met with a graphic artist to discuss the design of a Web site that encompassed my conception of the invention disclosed in U.S. Patent Application No. 09/759,225. We had a number of subsequent discussions during which I instructed the graphic artist on the design of particular screen shots and graphical user interfaces. These discussion were carried on through various means including corresponding via emails, corresponding via faxes, meeting by telephone and meeting in person. The Web site and business was named PinVault.com.
3. On July 23, 1999 I registered the www.pinvault.com Web site address with Register.com, as shown in the attached Register.com's "WHOIS" database. This registered Web site contained the subject matter of pending claims in this application. The subject matter was therefore invented prior to the date of disclosure of the subject matter in the Novell "Digitalme" publication (earliest possible disclosure of October 5, 1999).
4. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true, and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above-referenced application or any patent issuing thereon.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan H. Bari
